Agradecimientos a México por la ayuda enviada a las victimas del Huracán Katrina.

Le informo que al igual que al resto de los Consulados de México en Texas, la Señora Elena Escalante del Departamento de Estado de Texas, llamó al suscrito para en nombre del Gobernador de Texas agradecer el apoyo y cooperación que el Gobierno de México está otorgando a los damnificados por el Huracán Katrina.

Atentamente, López Moreno Cónsul de México

Cúmpleme informar que el día de ayer se recibió llamada telefónica de la Srita. Elena Escalante del Departamento de Estado de Texas, a fin de presentar a nombre del Gobernador Rick Perry y del Secretario de Estado Roger Williams, su agradecimiento por la ayuda que el Gobierno de México y sus consulados en Texas están haciendo llegar a los afectados por el Huracán Katrina.

De igual manera, para reiterar la disposición del gobierno de Texas para brindar ayuda a favor de los damnificados mexicanos afectados por este fenómeno natural.

Atentamente, Juan Carlos Foncerrada Berúmen Cónsul General

Seeing the Mexican convoy heading towards the states revaged by Hurricane Katrina made me feel extremely thankful. A are lucky that we have such caring neighbors. Your kindness and generosity will be greatly appreciated by so many in desperate need. I may be only one American, but i will never forget the pictures of your army marcing off to help our victims of Hurricane Katrina.

With heartfelt appreciation,

Wendy Carpenter-Israel

Dear Honorable Ambassador:

I have heard of the aid your country has provided those stricken by Hurricane Katrina and I would like to offer my personal sincere and humble gratude.

Ihave friends and family who will most likely receive aid from your efforts and it is much needed and much appreciated.

México has always been a great friend to this country, even when this country may not always be the best friend to México.

I live in California where a despicable wave of anti-immigration sentiment has turned into racism against people from México or of Mexican decent.

Despite this embarrassing behavior from a small but vocal minority of my neighbors, you have put your people in harms way to help us in our time of need. That shows a commitment to honor that many of my neighbors should use as an example as to how to treat your fellow man.

I live in Ciudad Satelite, D.F and Villahermosa, TB for a short period of time and I concur that the people of Mexico are some of the warmest, most loving and giving people there are.

Thank you,

G. Kevin Elliott 3978 Utah St #7 San Diego, CA 92104

I just wanted to say thanks to all of you for the aid you just sent to the victims of Hurricana Katrina in Texas. I know there are a lot of people who appreciate your kindness and generosity.

(Okay, I'm not sorry we won the last international soccer match, but.. THANKS, MEXICO!!!)

J. Chute

I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to the government of México and all its citizens for the help the Mexican Amy is providing for the people devastated by the hurricane and flooding in the Gulf Coast region.

Assistance affered with the open hand of friendship and good intentions such as this make the world a better place.

Muchas gracias, Dana Anderson

Mr. Amassador:

I just read of military convoy your government has sent to aid the victims of Hurricane Katrina. I hope that I am not the first American to say "thank you". We will not forget this kindness!

Dale A. Raby Green Bay, WI

Thank you so much for your countries help with hurricane Katrina.

As far as I know we did not ask for assistance, but Bush might have. I just wanted to say thank you for your convoy of aid, always thought our nations should have better relations since we live side by side.

As I write this email I am filed with a tremendous amount of emotion. I live in South Florida and felt the effects of devasting hurricanes and know what it means to receive help from others.

Today I weep for my fellow Americans who have suffered greatly.

I am also proud to say that in our time of great need the Country of México has seen fit to come to our assistance.

It was overwhelmed with joy when I say the military cross over the border from México to the US.

Iwant to thank your country for coming to country in this time of great need. Gregor Gregory.

I just saw a news photo of Mexican troops traveling in Texas to bring aid to our people who have been affected by Hurricane Katrina. I just want to express my heartfelt appreciation to the people of México and to your President.

When someone is seffering and sees a hand extended to help him and looks up to see a nieghbor whom he thought didn't care, it suddenly creates a bond that was never there before. Governments can debate back and make big claims but when it comes to touching lives at a humanitarian level, no words can have a greater impact. Thank you so much.

Sincerely James A. Loranc

Dear Mr. Ambassaador:

The American people are grateful to the Mexican people for the assistance towards relieving the suffering caused by Hurricane Katrina. You have this America's deep apretiation for this kind act. Thank you.

I am thanking the government and the people of México for their generous assistance to the USA in helping the relief effort. BRAVO. A great neighbor and a good friend.

Kind Friends: Thank you for your help with our disaster.

Thank you for providing assistance to the Americans in need in the Gulf Coast, I saw that the Mexican Army had arrived with assistance, it is great to have a good neighbor to our south.

About 3 years ago my wife and I visited Puerto Vallarta and found it to be wonderful, the Mexican people were great, they were so freindly, helpful and hard working. We took several tours around the area and saw the conditionsthey live in, but they were so proud to tell us of the progress that has been made.

We are visiting Playa Del Carmen, Cancun and Cozumel in November and look forward to seeing that area so rich in history. I know our stay will be delightful, thank again for you help and I hope the U.S will do everything they can to make sure we support Mexico's continued efforts to provide a improving lifestyle for their great citizens.

I've just heard the BBC news. Thank you for sending help to the United States in our time of need. This is certainly the way good neighbors help each other. We in this country all too often think we can go our own way withour the help of others. But were really one great big world community. Thank you. The Army and Navy assistance you have provided to our Gulf Coast states is welcome indeed. Thank you.

Thank you for coming to the aid of the United States and we appreciate our neighbor to our south. You support and expertise is greatly appreciated in our time in need.

Thanks again Darrell Hihg

El gentilicio mexicano se enaltece a través del acto de solidaridad hacia los vecinos del norte. Es un buen día para ser mexicano.

I am a US citizen living in New Jersey, USA. I have just read of the generus help Mexico has sent to survivors of Hurricane Ka. It has been heartbreaking to see this tragedy unfold, and, as an American, I wanted to sincerely thank the Mexican people and their gevernment for your kindness and generosity. We are a fortunate nation in many ways, perhaps most importantly in harving compassionate friends and neighbors like Mexico. Gracias, amigos.

I would like to express my gratuite for Mexico's response to our disaster on the Gulf Coast. Your help is much needed and a wonderful gesture of friendship. Thank you very much Mary McComb

I wish to give my heartfelt thanks to President Vicente Fox and people of México for their generus participation in relief efforts during our national tragedy. I have always felt an affinity for México, and this has lifted my love for the people of México to the utmost degree. Thank you so much for caring about us. Tou do not have to reply to this, for I know you are very busy with more important things, but felt I han to express my thanks as a citizen of the United States and the world. Muchas gracias y vayan con DIOS,

As an American citizen, I want to thank you for aiding the victims of Hurricane Katrina.

Igrew up in El Paso, Texas, on the border with your country, and as a result, have always felt a epecial attachment to México. Plus, as a historian, the history of Mexico has always been an interest of mine.

It warms my heart to see this humanitarian gesture.

Gracias. Mark Pitcavage

I just want to say "Thank YOU!" to the Mexican government. I was just reading about the Aid Convoy sent to help the victims of Hurricane Katrina. While I do not live in the affected area, I do appreciate the efforts by the Mexican Government, Army and People, to help in this time of trouble in the Southem US.

In the past I have spent a lot of time on busines and pleasure in México; Monterrey, Saltillo, Guanajuato, Leon, D.F, etc., and have enjoyed the hospitality of my hosts. Mexico is a country I love to travel in.

Again, Thank you for efforts to help.

Regards,

Mark Waxman, Cleveland, OH

Thank you for the aid that you are sending my country for Hurricane Katrina victims. Viva La México"

I jus wanted to send a big thank you to your government and the citizens of the great country of México for all the help you are giving the people affected by Hurricane Katrina.

T think we will forget it!

Hello:

I would like to send a "Thank You" to the Mexican Government for sending their troops to help out with the Hurricane victims, but I cannot find either an email address or actual address to send this to.

Can you supply me with this information?

Thank you very much for your time.

Sincerely, Angela Meinig, Portland, Oregon.

Thank you for sending assistance to the United States during our crisis due to Hurricane Katrina. It is nice to have good neighbors.

Tim

To the People and Government of México:

Like many Americans, I always felt your country creates a burden on our economy.

I read today that you are sending military aid to help with the relief in the victims of Hurricane Katrina. In one short article my perception was changed. Thank you for your gesture and aid. I hope this changes the perception of other Americans as well.

Sincerely, Todd H.

Thank you kindly for your assistance in helping us with the Katrina disaster. Mike Dodson.

I recently read about the convoy that México is sending to America to aid the victims of Hurricane Katrina. I just wanted to let you know how very grateful I am for the kindness and generosity of the Mexican people. Thank you a hundred times over for being there for us in our time of need.

Thank you very much for your recent aid to our Hurricane survivors. It is great to see how much our two nations care about each other, God bless you

Ese mensaje es respeto de la Ayuda humanitaria de la Armada de México a los damnificados por el Huracán Katrina.

Conozco bien si país. Estudie y trabaje unos años en México- y respeto mucho su país y su población.

Muchas gracias por su asistencia y apoyo en esos tiempos.

Con respeto Allison Bingham Cle Elum, Washington

Speaking as a private citizen of the United States, may I say thank you or, more properly, gracias, for the help México is sending to our country for the relief of Hurricane Katrina. It's so good to know that our neighbors care and are willing to help.

Perhaps you would be kind enough to extend to your President than your aid is much appreciated. My Spanish is very limited but I would like to say to him, if my grammar is accurate-

Seño El Presidente, Muchas gracias, mi amigo.

Thank again, and may God bless our brother and sisters in México.

Sincerely, Robert Paine

Hello:

I just read in our newspaper about the aid ship that México has sent to the US. I wanted to write a thank you note. To whom could I write it?

Thank you for your help,

Lizie

I noticed that your army has arrived with help in Texas for the Hurricane. VERY NICE! know that Mexicans know how to work as a team as ALL my employees are Mexicans! Great job!

To the Ambassador of México.

Sir, I just read that México is sending help to the victims of Hurricane Katrina and I wanted to say thank you! God bless México and her people.

Thank you.

Thank you for your good will towards our peoples. I for one praise the light of the one, the guardian of our world, who loves and raises us all. Thank you, as we are all filled with its repose.

A neo peagan who thanks you.

Quiero decir gracias para la ayuda por las victimas del Huracán Katrina. El país de México es muy generoso.

Mil gracias Jerry Ashburn

I hope you get this message. There are so many regular Americans, not famous, not rich, just average people like me, who appreciate so much that your people would do so much to help our people in the Gulf who are going through hell unimagined. They need so much help and what you are bringing is so desperately needed. It's not about politics or money, it's about the true love of our people in this terrible time.

Rshirey, South Carolina

Thank you México, you Government and all your people for help and in the disaster of Hurricane Katrina. If I had a Mexican flag I would display it proudly. México will always be in my heart and prayers.

God Bless you all and thank you.

I want to THANK YOU! I personally am so grateful than you (México) have sent aid to our recent natural disaster created by Hurricane Katrina. I truly feel that your consideration of those affected by this devasting event is beyond words. Thank you so much! Please extend my gratuite as a natural US Citizen to ALL members of your government who felt compelled to send aid regardless of government bureaucracy. Those thousand of people whose lives have been torn apart need all the help that can be provided. Thank you again and God Bless You and all of Your People!

Mis Amigos:

A warm and heartfelt embrace for the generosity and many acts of kindess being expressed for the victims of Hurricane Katrina here along the Gulf Coast.

Please do know that your magnanimous efforts are appreciated by people at all levels and of all circumstances.

Your show of love for your brothers and to the North and FROM the highest levels of the gevenment of México is both humbling and serves to remind us all of our interconnectedness, our closeness, our humanity.

To the Peoples of México, many thanks. It is

Como han venido informando nuestros Consulados en el Estado de Texas, la Sra. Helena Colyandro, Directora de Relaciones con México y Asuntos Fronterizos manifestó a esta Representación, a nombre del Gobernador Perry, su agradecimiento por la ayuda que el Gobierno de México ha hecho llegar a Texas para aliviar el sufrimiento de los damnificados por el Huracán Katrina.

Se reiteró la disposición del Gobierno de Texas de coadyuvar en todo aquello que redunde en beneficio de los damnificados de nacionalidad mexicana.

Atentamente

LARA A LA TORRE.

Gracias Amigos.

Dear friends in México:

Thank you so much for sending humanitarian aid to our citizens suffering the ravages of Hurricane Katrina. It is wonderful that such devastation is capable of bringing such brotherhood to our two nations.

We will always remember this gift from our neighbors to the south.

God bless you

Muchas Gracias!

Thank you to the Mexican Government for sending aid to the survivors of Hurricane Katrina. It is very much appreciated by the regular, everyday people of this country, especially when our government cannot help its people. I sincerely hope this will bring our two countries closer as Americans begin to realize that we are not infallible, but are only one small part of the greater global comunity.

I wish to thank you for your assistance in helping the US recover from the terrible hurricane.

Sincerely.

David Bitting

Thank you for your very generous offer of assistance to the unfortunate victims of Hurricane Katrina. I will petition my government to accept your offer without further delay. Whit sincere gratitude
